RELATING TO THE RESTORATION OF CIVIL RIGHTS FOR CONVICTED FELONS

WHEREAS, the right to vote is the foundation of a representative government;
and

WHEREAS, under the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, an individual convicted of a felony is denied the right to vote or hold public office; and

WHEREAS, these restrictions may continue long after a sentence has been fully served; and

WHEREAS, according to media reports, an estimated more than 140,000 Kentuckians have already completed their sentences for non-violent felonies but remain disenfranchised and cannot vote; and

WHEREAS, research indicates that people who have completed their sentences and who vote are less likely to re-offend and return to prison; and

WHEREAS, restoration of the right to vote is an important aspect of promoting rehabilitation and reintegration into society to become law-abiding and productive citizens; and

WHEREAS, Kentucky is one of only two states that does not currently provide an automatic process for restoring voting rights for citizens upon final discharge of their sentences; and

WHEREAS, the current means by which Kentuckians who have completed their sentences seek to have their rights restored is unnecessarily time consuming; and
